City-Wide Garage Sale Coordinator Needed

Believe it or not, it's time to start thinking about the City-Wide Garage Sales again. I've already had a couple phone calls asking when it will be held this year. Renee Eyres has decided not to be the coordinator this year, so we need to have someone volunteer to step up to the plate. I'm sure Renee would be willing to answer questions regarding the set-up and planning. This is entirely volunteer, and the city only gets involved when it comes to helping get the word out to residents (through the newsletter and via the electronic sign). All decisions are up to the coordinator as far as the date, costs, advertising, etc.

Please let me know if you would be interested in helping this year.

Thank you to the late-night and early -morning walkers that either carry flashlights or wear reflective clothing!!! Residents have commented how much they appreciate the extra efforts you put forth so drivers can see you more easily in the dark.

The easiest way to find something lost around the house is to buy a replacement...
